

Re-enacted This Week Are These Scenes From Past 4-H Fairs

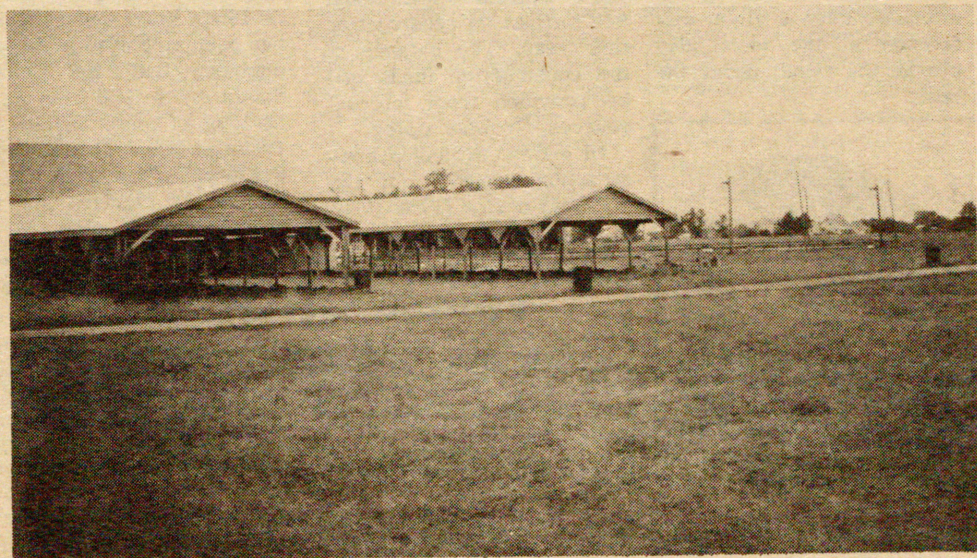

THIS WAS taken at a former Will County 4-H Fair at Francis Field when a class of Holsteins was shown in the dairy division. The dairy cattle were judged yesterday but after this issue had gone to press.

THIS SCENE will be repeated many times today as boys and girls get their entries ready for the beef show judging at Francis Field. This picture, taken last year, shows a pair of 4-H's engaged in the important task of grooming a beef calf. Note the "rattling" of the tail -- just the gals do their hair -- and the final touch is the application of hair - set.

THE SWINE EXHIBIT always draws interested spectators, as evident from this picture taken at a former Will County 4-H fair. This year's fair will wind up today at Francis Field. The attendance has been pleasing to those in charge and the exhibitors.

NEW ADDITION to stock pavilion. Formerly there was but one wind at the north end of the structure and that was flattened by a tornado last fall. There are two wings now and at south end where the building is closed in are some bleachers. Apparently they will accommodate spectators for the judging of the smaller animals at the 4-H Fair.

The grounds are located on Francis rd., about three miles west of Wolf rd. in Mokena, or a mile east of Cedar rd., New Lenox.

There is no admission charge to either fair and the public is invited.

The beef breeds are being judged today (Thursday) and tonight at 7:30 the winning Will County 4-H Share-the-Fun act will be part of the program of entertainment. Plan Conference On Winning Industry

A one-day industrial development conference sponsored by Northern Illinois Gas Co. will be held on Thursday, Sept. 22, at the Dorchester Inn, Dolton. G. R. Merten, manager of NI-Gas' Area Industrial Development department, said the conference will afford an opportunity for community leaders to hear some of the state's outstanding industrial development experts discuss programs

More than 1,000 entries have been judged at the Will County exhibition. There was a dog show Tuesday night, a horse show Wednesday night and the program outlined above for tonight.

The South Cook County 4-H Fair is larger this year than last. In previous shows most of the events took place on one day -- Saturday, but this year's exhibition is too big for that.

The program will open tomorrow afternoon with the judging of food, room improvements and horticulture exhibits. A horse show is scheduled for 6 o'clock Friday evening, to be followed by a fashion revue at 7:30 in the Exhibition Hall at which girls will model the coats and dresses they have made. At 9 o'clock the King and Queen of the fair will be crowned.

Livestock judging will begin at 9:30 a.m. Saturday. Also to be judged are conservation projects: handicrafts; photography; entomology and farm products.

Judging of dairy exhibits will begin at 1 p.m. A dog show is set for 2:30; a driver skill contest at 3:30 and entertainment is scheduled from 4 to 6 p.m. with time out for lunch at 5:00.

Norman Strassenberg will auction off 4-H products, food and merchandise starting at 6:30 p.m. Grand champion awards will be presented at 8 o'clock, followed by entertainment at 8:30.

Thousands have attended the fair to date and thousands more are expected to be attracted to the events by the time the week is done. There is ample parking space.

ILLINOIS STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

WHAT IS A TITLE ABSTRACT

Have you ever wondered what a lawyer or realtor means when he speaks of an "abstract of title"? Generally stated, an abstract of title is a summary of all the transactions, such as sales or mortgages, which have taken place concerning a particular piece of land since it has been privately owned.

The history of a given piece of land can be studied by looking at the entries in the abstract. Many of these entries describe deeds conveying the land or any part of it, together with a reference to the book and page in the County Recorder's office where a copy of the actual deed can be found.

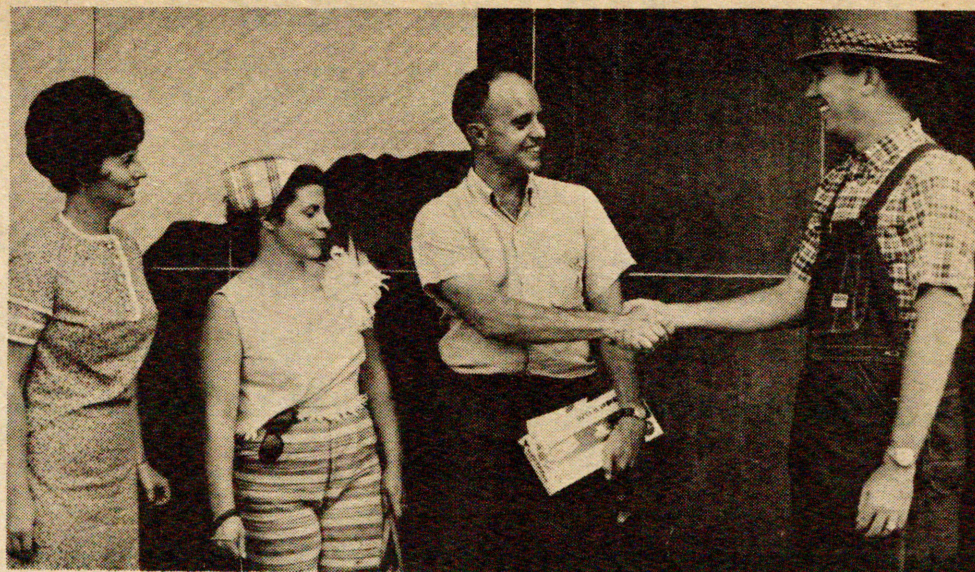

The abstract will also contain a note of the death of any owner of the land and a reference to the proceedings in the deceased's estate. It concisely explains any provision of the deceased's will involving the land, or if there is no will, the names of known heirs are listed.

Similarly, the abstract shows mortgage or tax foreclosure proceedings relating to the property, and the bankruptcy of an owner. All proceedings having to do with that particular piece of land, since it was first ceded from the United States government, are listed in an unbroken chain in the abstract.

Almost all information in an abstract is obtained from local records. The law requires that deeds and mortgages be filed for record in the County Recorder's Office and all estate, foreclosure and bankruptcy proceedings are similarly written in county records.

But when you want to buy a certain lot of land and the seller wants to show you he can give a good title, instead of spending several days floundering through old county records he goes to the local abstractor. He continues the old abstract or prepares a new one from the beginning if the seller does not have one. For a fee based on the number of items involved, the abstractor will review the county records and furnish the seller with an up-to-date "book" or abstract showing the history of the title to the property in question.

Buyers must realize, however, that merely because the seller has a current ab-

Gardeners Luncheon at Olympia Fields Aug. 8

Garden Club members thruout the state have been invited to the third summer meeting to be at the Olympia Fields Country Club, Olympia Fields, on Aug. 8, announces Mrs. Chester Evans, LaGrange, president of The Garden Club of Illinois, Inc.

Hostesses for the luncheon meeting will be members of The Garden Club of Park Forest.

Mrs. Lynn Hurst, president of the Park Forest club, said the hostess group is planning "A Day to Remember," highlighted by a 1 o'clock luncheon and a two-hour flower arranging program by Bob Thomas, floral consultant, author of books on flower arranging, teacher, and lecturer.

A native Kentuckian, Mr. Thomas conducts regular classes in his studio in Nashville. He is a charter member and past president of the Nashville Men's Garden Club, a member of the Nashville Chapter of Ikebana International, and a past board member of the Tennessee Federated Garden Clubs, Inc.

"Let's Go Creative" is the abstract which shows a transfer to him, this is far from adequate proof of clear title. The important and technical task of evaluating abstract entries must be done by legal counsel, who is able to decide whether the seller's "title" is good and free from defects.

title of Mr. Thomas's program, a general informative presentation of all types of flower arrangements designed to place interest on creativity.

Mr. Thomas is especially noted for his work in the field of abstract design.

Tickets for the luncheon and program are $4.50 and reservations may be made with Mrs. John Diller, 410 Watseka, Park Forest. Phone reservations made by calling Mrs. Diller, Area Code, 312, phone 748-7591. Tickets will be held for distribution at the Olympia Fields Country Club, Mrs. Hurst said.

The deadline for reservations is Aug. 1; no cancellations can be accepted after Aug. 3, Mrs. Hurst pointed out.

Guests may reach the Olympia Fields Country Club by Illinois Central Commuter Train. Hostess supplied cars will escort these visiting Garden Club members from the Olympia Fields Commuter station to the Country Club.

For those arriving by automobile, the Country Club is located one mile north of U.S. Highway 30 on Western Avenue.

Preceding the luncheon guests will be greeted, from 12 o'clock until 1 p.m., in the Olympian Room, Mrs. Hurst noted.

Officers of the board of directors of The Garden Club of Illinois, Inc., will meet in executive session beginning at 9:30 a.m. at the Club, it was announced.

NI-Gas To Open Mortgage Bonds Bids On Aug. 16

Northern Illinois Gas Company on July 19 filed a registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission for $20 million 25-year first mortgage bonds.

According to William J. Crowley, NI-Gas executive vice president - finance, competitive bids will be sought. The bids are scheduled to be opened on Aug. 16. Crowley said that the financing will cover the company's long-term capital needs for 1966. The utility expects to spend about $46 million on construction this year. The balance of the construction funds will be provided from internal sources, Crowley stated.

NI-Gas' projected construction program for the 5-year period (1966-1970) is $205 million.

REWARDS OF A JOB well done are displayed here by Billy Hammertree (left) who placed first in the Downhill Derby and also for the design of his car. Mike Arnold (center) took second place in the race and Jory Pierce (right) was third. This was the second annual Downhill Derby staged by the Cub Scouts of Orland Park. After the race the boys and their parents had a picnic in the McGinnis Slough area of the Forest Preserve.

Orland Village Board Adopts Building Code

The Orland Park Village Board had a comparatively short meeting Monday night but accomplished considerable.

One of the accomplishments was passage of the building code. This ordinance has been under consideration for several months as there are many angles that must be covered. The code includes the provisions of the national building, plumbing and electrical codes applicable to communities of the size and character of Orland Park. Because of the voluminous size the entire code is not published but copies are available for consultation at the village hall.

Also adopted Monday was the tax levy ordinance. This calls for a levy of $110,000 but it is not expected that the village will get over $40,000. The reason is that a taxing body does not know what the assessed valuation will be at the time appropriations and the tax levy ordinances are adopted so the levy often exceeds the limitations the law permits in extending taxes. In brief the village cannot collect all it levies. A taxing body also is confronted by some delinquencies -- when property owners can't or fail to pay their taxes. The village treasurer's report was approved.

The Continental Insurance Group was awarded the village's business. Considerable time was spent by the trustees this year before contracts were let for insurance. Under the set-up finally approved Continental will write all of the village's insurance, a blanket policy that will cover practically everything, it was said. William Mulder, an insurance consultant, who was retained by the trustees to guide them in placing the insurance this year, said that the new arrangements could be expected to bring the village a savings of about $1,200.

Discussed in considerable detail by the board Monday was the prospect of leasing more of the Nike site from the federal government. The village now holds a lease to a portion of the property, including the launching sites.

Members of the board are scheduled to make an inspection of the property next Monday night at which time they hope to find the answers on which they will arrive at a decision. Leasing such land, it was pointed out, is on a short term basis and such lease can be cancelled quickly should the government have need of it. If the government decides to sell the property, some claim, it could be that a leaseholder would be in a better position to acquire title than an outsider.

The additional portion the government is preparing to lease is in the proximity of the part now under lease to the village but it does not include the shops which the army still operates west of U.S. 45.

Mokena Board Completes Appropriation Measure

The Mokena Village Board is expected to formally adopt its annual appropriation ordinance at its regular meeting next Wednesday night, Aug. 3. The measure has been on file for public inspection since July 20.

Total amount carried in the ordinance is $278,776.25 of which $98,000 is for general purposes; $162,770 for the operation and maintenance of the water and sewer system and $18,006.25 for general obligation bonds and public benefits.

It was pointed out by board members that the fact a sum is appropriated does not mean that it will be spent. It is quite probable that in a number of instances the money would not be available but in case the money is forthcoming the expenditure is authorized. The board is banned by law from spending money for purposes not included in the appropriation ordinance.

The major item in the water and sewer system section of the ordinance is the $100,000 from bond sales for the waterworks extension program. That will be paid out this year. The debt service is $21,275, which includes principle and interest payments on revenue bonds and amounts set aside for the surplus and contingency funds the village is required to set up to protect revenue bond holders. The sum of $24,175 is appropriated for the operation of the sewer and water department; also $4700 for administration, supplies and expenses; $870 for insurance and $2,750 for legal and engineering services.

No taxes are levied to meet the expenses of the water and sewer department. They are paid out of revenues from the sale of water and sewer services.

The general obligation bonds and the public benefit are paid thru special tax levies.

The money necessary to meet the general expenses of the village come from taxes and other sources of revenue. The other sources include motor fuel tax money and state sales tax. The village also gets a portion of the road and bridge tax paid in the township.

The amount to be raised by tax levy, according to the ordinance is $71,350 and from other sources, $26,650.

Among the proposed expenditures is $10,000 for a new village hall and $3,000 for a snow plow and cinder spreader. The streets and alleys figure comes to $35,100; the police department, $15,100, which includes $2,500 for a new car.

A fund of $1,000 is set up for the newly formed Industrial Development Committee. The ordinance will be published next week.

Mokena Firemen Get Diplomas

Fifteen members of the Mokena Volunteer Fire Department have received diplomas signifying they have completed the 5-week course of instruction under the tutelage of Paul Boecker, of the University of Illinois. The course, in firemanship training, is part of the University's extension program.

Boecker said that the Mokena class was one of the best in attendance and over all efficiency of action, that he has conducted. Members of the department voted Boecker a lifetime honorary member and he was presented with a Mokena fireman's badge by Chief Robert Rust at a recent meeting of the Fire College held at Champaign.

Members who received diplomas are:

Chief Rust, Asst. Chief William Haas, Barney Hoogstra, Don Niemann, Dave Bergman, Charles Vestry, Kenneth Bocman, Charles Craigmile, Charles Manhart, Delbert Yunker, Marvin Bornet, Roy Koerner, George Haehlein, Wesley Schultz and Kenneth Lauffer.

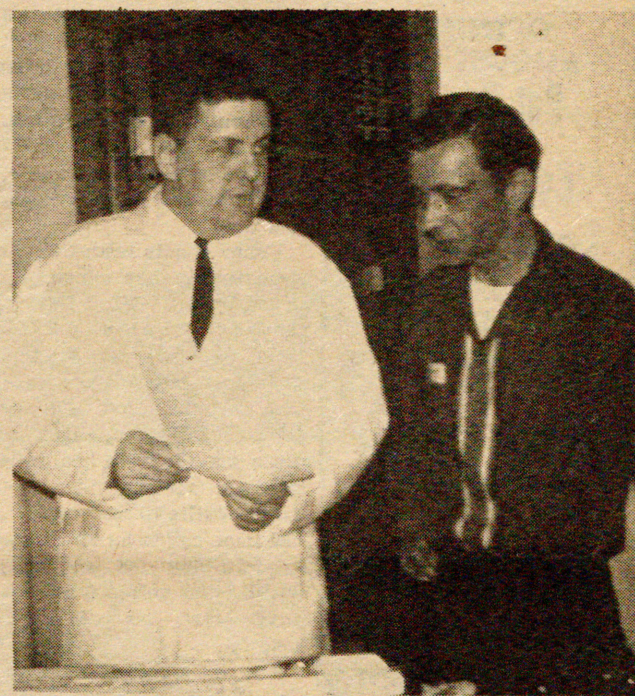

Six other men were unable to complete the course because of a conflict with working hours or business commitments. Boecker said that the missed sessions can be made up by attending similar courses when they are held in the immediate vicinity.

Lutheran Group Acquires Site On Wolf Road

A new Lutheran church is in Mokena's future, it was disclosed by the Board of American Missions of the Lutheran Church in America.

This board has purchased eight acres at the southeast corner of Wolf rd. and 183d st. Mr. and Mrs. George Abbe were the sellers, and John Barton, Orland Park real estate dealer, handled the transaction. The price was not disclosed.

At the Chicago headquarters of the Lutheran group it was said that plans were to organize a congregation here and build a church when the situation warranted it. It might be a year, two years or five years, it was said, all depending upon the development of the area. In the meantime the land can be farmed by Abbe.

DIPLOMAS FOR graduates of the firemanship training school conducted at Mokena by Paul Boecker, University of Illinois, are being handed by Boecker to Fire Chief Robert Rust for final distribution. The course last five weeks.

Girl Scouts Attend Program

Two Orland Park girls, Molly Close, 15043 Highland av., and Margaret Holcombe, 15143 Hilltop dr., were among 212 South Cook County Girls Scouts who attended the second two-week camping program at Camp Manistee July 12-25. It is Camp Manistee's 17th season.

Camping is the Girl Scout program in the out-of-doors. Practical training as leaders and followers is the ultimate objective of Girl Scouting. In small groups, called Patrols, the campers themselves decide what activity is best for them as individuals as Patrols.

50-Lap Race Saturday Could Be Clincher In U.A.R.A. Championship

The 50-lap mid-season championship race at Joliet Memorial Stadium Saturday night may prove to be the race that could decide the champion driver in the United Auto Racing Association for 1966. With just a few points separating the top five drivers, the championship is wide open and up for grabs! Fast driving and hard competition can be expected when the drivers and cars take to the flat, asphalt, quarter-mile oval for this double point feature event Saturday night.

The combination of Jolietan Roger West behind the wheel of Bob Corson's fast Chevy 11 car out of Harvey, Ill., "clicked" last Saturday night as West won the first feature event of his career.

The crowd-pleasing, hard charging veteran driver of the Midget tracks, Willy Wilson of Fort Myers, Fla., finished second behind West, followed by George Kladis, John Pancho Padilla and Bobby Richards. Gene Varing, who had won the 6-lap trophy dash event earlier in the evening, spun-out in the feature event. Lockport's Bobby Richards had fast qualifying time for the third time in the last four weeks of racing at the Stadium. Richards, who has been moving up very fast in points, took over the 4th place spot this week.

Danny Kladis leads the Association in heat wins with seven to his credit. He won the first heat event Saturday night. Tony Lenti of Los Angeles, Calif., and a past U.A.R.A. champion, won the second heat event. Bill Clemens won the third heat race after an accident that sent Aaron Willis to the hospital. The race had to be re-started following the accident. Willis, who suffered a fractured wrist, was held at the hospital.

The fourth heat went to feature winner, Roger West, Tommy Ward of Lafayette, Ind., a frequent visitor at the Stadium, copped the 15-lap semi.

Phil Palombo hung onto a slim lead in driver point standings for the third week in a row. The five leading drivers are: - 1. Palombo 801. 2. George Kladis 781. 3. John Padilla 776. 4. Bobby Richards 720. 5. Gene Varing 717.

Time trials for the 50-lap championship event will get underway at 7 p.m. with the first race set for 8:15. As usual for all events, children under 12 years of age are admitted free when accompanied by their parents.

Mokena Teacher At Summer Institute

James McGuire, a science teacher and a member of the staff of Willowcrest School, Mokena, is one of 39 elementary school science teachers from 19 states participating in a chemistry and physics institute at Northern Illinois University.

The tab for this special course has been picked up by the National Science Foundation, coming to a trifle under $40,000. The course extends over an 8-week period and is still in progress. The teachers are learning to prepare science demonstration experiments during lab periods while studying subjects from chemical elements and atomic weights to a review of the basic principles of physics.

Lectures and lab sessions are conducted in NIU's 90,000 square-foot Faraday Hall, completed in 1964. Classrooms, offices and laboratories of the physics and chemistry department are located here as well as a science library and auxiliary facilities that include an electronics shop, glass-blowing shop, and liquid-nitrogen facilities.

Park Board To Take Tennis Court Bids

The Mokena Park Board will take bids Aug. 4 on four tennis courts to be built in Community Park.

The board has been considering the building of courts for some time and according to Charles Swanberg, president, there is a strong public demand for such facilities.

William E. Rose and Associates, landscape architects, of Hinsdale, have been retained by the park board to draft plans for the courts.

Numerous invitations to bid have been extended to firms specializing in this work. There are to be three bids, one on the courts themselves, one on grading and seeding, and one on fencing the courts.

The courts will have blocktop surfaces.

The park board will use the village hall for the meeting at which bids will be received. The deadline for bids is 8 p.m. Aug. 4.

At its recent annual meeting the Mokena Park Board organized for the coming year. Swanberg was re-elected president; Edwin Yunker, vice president; William Steen, secretary and Arthur Omland, treasurer.

It was reported there are 260 children enrolled in the summer recreation program at Community Park. Carol Lauffer is in charge. The program ends Aug. 5.

"I only wish I could give more," reads a carefully-written note attached to a $20 check. "The Red Cross helped me when I needed it badly, and now I am glad to give a little help to someone else."

Well on the way to its goal of $2500 in a special emergency fund drive here in Will County, the Red Cross office in Joliet is getting lots of heartwarming notes like that quoted above, according to George Travers, Red Cross regional chairman.

Bigger gifts from companies and organizations will make up the bulk of the dollars received, Red Cross officials are quick to admit, "but the spontaneous donations which come in the mail, and the notes, cards, and letters attached to them, really tell the story of people helping their neighbors," Travers said.

The emergency drive, part of a $9 million national campaign, is needed because of the costs of Red Cross services in Vietnam, plus unusually heavy expenditures for disaster relief in the past two years.

Travers emphasized that even the contributions are flowing in every day, the drive is still on, and all donations, large or small, are badly needed.

Will county citizens who have not yet given may do so by sending donations to Red Cross Emergency Appeal, 222 North Broadway, Joliet, Ill., 60435.

"It's a real education in human kindness and good will, to read these letters," Travers said. "One lady, whose handwriting looked like that of an elderly person, said 'you helped my son in World War II and my grandson in Vietnam. Now maybe my little donation can help someone else.'"

Other letters, Travers stated, referred to last year's extensive tornado and windstorm damages in Will County, and the help given by Red Cross to the donors.

"Just a hot meal when my family needed it most," one man writes, "it doesn't seem like much when you say it, but it was worth a million at the time."

"The people of Will County benefit every day from Red Cross service in one form or another," Travers said, "and I know that they will do their part in this serious financial emergency. I urge everyone to give as generously as possible, and to send it in today."

Father-Son Banquet Follows Play-offs

MRS. EDWARD HOVI
Telephone: 479-5740

The baseball season is nearing its closing with next week being the last of the games of the regular season. Following the regular season there will be a play-off of all teams except the Farm Teams.

Following the season and the play-offs, there will be a Father-Son Banquet to be held at the school on Saturday evening, August 20.

The oldest team the Arbury-Estates Cubs of the Colt League played two games this past week with our boys emerging victorious in both encounters. They played the Frankfort Cardinals and defeated them by the score of ten to four. The second game was even more one-sided, when the New Lenox Lions lost to the Arbury-Estates Cubs by the score of seventeen to two.

The Lincoln Hill Dodgers of the Pony League played only one game last week, which was against the Mokena Sox. The lopsided results of eighteen to six was not completely indicative of their capabilities, since only nine boys showed up for the game, necessitating all boys to play the entire game regardless.

The Arbury Hills White Sox of the Little League split their two games last week with the Frankfort Lions defeating our boys in a free scoring game by the score of seventeen to thirteen. The second game was also against Frankfort, but this time the Frankfort Cubs. The score ended with a nine to three victory for the Arbury Hills White Sox.

The Arbury Hills Red Sox of the Minor League played just one game, and seemed to have found out the secret of defeating the Manhattan Team after two decisive losses earlier in the season, our boys have now won their second in a row against Manhattan now with the most recent being the fifteen to five victory last week. This win vaulted the Red Sox into first place among their competitors.

The Wildcats of the Farm Team League played one game last against the Lincoln Estates team and won by the score of nine to four.

The Angels of the Farm Team League also played one game last week against Lincoln Estates with similar results. They, the Angels, also defeated Lincoln Estates by a close one with the score being seven to five.

The secretary's book of the Arbury Hills Baby Sitters Cooperative is scheduled to change hands on Monday, August 1, from Mrs. Ardell Borchert to Mrs. Leanne Blecha, who will serve as secretary for the month of August. Any member needing a sitter should contact Mrs. Blecha at least twenty-four hours in advance of the date needed.

This is the last week to obtain your tickets for the Drury Lane Theatre Party sponsored by St. Mary's Church in Mokena. The play will be "Catch Me If You Can" with the starring lead being played by Jane Russell.

Tickets for this affair are $3.50 per person and may be obtained in Arbury Hills from: Mrs. Ole Heim at 479-5755; Mrs. Leanne Blecha at 479-5607; Mrs. Carolyn Cronas at 479-5038; Mrs. Joan Rankin at 479-9129; and Mrs. Mary Mundt at 479-5360.

The proceeds from the theatre party will be used toward the building fund. The Drury Lane Theatre is located at 2500 West 94th Place, in Chicago. The date is Sunday, evening, July 31, at 7:00 P.M., and the cost is $3.50 Per Person.

Charles and Evelyn Wenk of 9527 West Rosewood Lane added one more boy to their roster, when Raymond was born at the Silver Cross Hospital in Joliet on July 8. He weighed a birthweight of eight pounds, four ounces.

Raymond is number nine on the list of Wenk offsprings with William, who is 20, the only married one of the children and in the Navy, James who is nineteen, Charlene who is eighteen, Rosalene who is fifteen, Judy who is twelve, Carol who is seven, Thomas who is four and Diane who is two, taking up the other eight places.

Baltz Has Part In Campaign Planning

Meade Baltz Joliet, candidate for the Illinois Senate, was honored at a $100 per plate dinner July 21 for the 58 Republican candidates for the Illinois state senate.

Former Vice-President Richard M. Nixon was featured speaker at the dinner which was held at the Conrad Hilton Hotel in Chicago.

Mr. Baltz also took part in a two-day, in-depth campaign planning conference titled "Building a Winning Team in '66" which marked the kick-off for the Fall campaign.

"Top people from around the country, experienced in all phases of campaigning, addressed the conference and met with each of us on our individual problems," Baltz said. "We were also able to meet with the other candidates from around the state to discuss our mutual problems."

"Vice-President Nixon, in his speech, urged the people of Illinois to restore a balance in government by electing Republicans to key state offices and to maintain the strength of the two-party system by electing a Republican majority to the Illinois Legislature," Baltz said.

Also participating in the Conference were Charles Percy, Republican candidate for U.S. Senator; Harris Rowe, candidate for state treasurer, and Superintendent of Public Instruction, Ray Page. They pledged their fullest cooperation in a unified and fighting campaign for Republicans throughout the state this year.

ASC Convention To Elect County Committee Friday

The county convention where farmer-chosen delegates will elect farmers to fill vacancies on the Will County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Committee will be held July 29, at the Will County ASCS Office, according to Charles E. Deutschman, chairman.

The convention will be open to the public, and any person interested in observing the voting procedure may attend. However, only farmer-delegates to the convention may participate in the election process. Election is by secret ballot and plurality vote. After the county committeemen are elected the delegates will then determine which of the regular committeemen will serve as chairman and vice chairman for the coming year.

Last year county committee members were elected for staggered terms of three, two, and one year each. This year the 1-year term will expire for regular member,

Alex H. Brown. The nominee elected to this position will serve for a 3-year term. In addition two alternates to the county committee will be elected for one year each.

ASC county and community committeemen are in charge of the local administration of such farm-action programs as the agricultural conservation program, the feed grain and wheat programs, the national wool program, commodity price-support loans, and storage facility loans.

A qualified candidate for service on the ASC county committee, the chairman explained, is a resident eligible to vote in one of the community elections in the county, and who meets other eligibility requirements. Eligibility to vote or hold office as a committeeman is not restricted by reason of race, color, creed, or national origin. Other details as to qualifications of candidates are available at the ASCS county office.

BY RICHARD DeLANO
ASSISTANT COOK COUNTY
FARM ADVISER IN ORNAMENTAL HORTICULTURE
AND FLORICULTURE

The intense heat and hot humid weather have been some of the biggest topics of the conversation for several weeks. Folks adjust to this heat by drinking more water, dressing lighter and seeking cooler areas.

Garden plants are not so adaptable and thus they suffer during periods of intense heat. Gardeners should help plants adjust to these extreme conditions. However, there's no need to panic and spray for "blight" when the condition is simply leaf scorch.

There are several precautions that should be taken in hot weather. Many insecticides and fungicides should not be applied when the temperature is over 85 degrees. Applied in hot weather they will cause burning of leaf tips and margins. This risk is avoided if spraying is done in early morning or late evening.

Obviously plants need more water during 90 degree weather. However, sometimes a plant during intense heat can not absorb and carry water to leaf tips fast enough. Birches, maples and many other trees and shrubs may exhibit a leaf burn and wilting. Birches being natives of the north are especially susceptible to heat injury. One the other hand, southern plants such as magnolias thrive on intense heat.

Even when thoroughly watered, certain garden flowers will be prone to wilt. Chrysanthemums and snapdragons that are lacking in potassium are unusually prone to wilting during periods of stress. This can often be corrected by two waterings with a fertilizer solution. Use one level tablespoon of a 20-20-20 soluble fertilizer per gallon of water. If a lack of potassium is the problem, you should see correction starting within five days after watering.

If possible, prize plants should be staked so they will not wilt down, certain flowers such as gladioli and snapdragons do not become erect after recovering from wilting. The main stem remains prostrate while the growing tips point skyward. This results in "S" or "L" shaped stems.

Even the vegetable garden has its special methods of responding to heat. Tomato plants will curl their leaves in the middle of the day. Lettuce and radishes respond by producing very bitter products. Usually neither are too palatable when picked from the garden during 90 degree heat.

Insect and disease problems tend to fall into very predictable patterns during hot weather. If the season is rainy or periods of light rainfall occur, plant disease will be rampant. Should the weather be quite dry, insects will be more of a problem. This means checking the undersides of leaves for aphids and mites.

Finally, don't forget to take the obvious precaution. If you have some newly established plants, give them some temporary shade with cheesecloth or old newspapers.

Will Select Scouts For Jamboree

Joseph Warren, Flossmoor, chairman of the Calumet council, Boy Scouts of America, committee for activities and special events has announced that 15 of this area's youth will be selected to participate in the twelfth World Jamboree which will be held in the United States of America from Aug. 1 to 9, 1967 at Farragut State Park, Idaho. This is the first time that the Scouts' quadrennial World Jamboree has been held in this country.

Only a small percentage of the Boy Scouts of America membership will be permitted to take part in the actual encampment. So as not to overshadow the contingents from other world areas, only about 5,000 B.S.A. members will be selected. Scouts throughout the U.S.A. will, however, have the opportunity to serve as hosts to Scouts from the other countries. The fifteen boys to be selected from the Calumet Boy Scout council will join with others from Wisconsin, Michigan, Illinois and Indiana to make up the region seven contingent. In addition to being proficient in campcrafts and qualified for strenuous activity, they must be 14 years of age on or before January 1, 1967 and must have attained the Life Scout rank or higher before April 1, 1967. They must also have a good general knowledge of world conditions and of our country's history and be able to state clearly the fundamental principles on which our country was founded.

One additional boy of the council will be selected to serve as a member of the Jamboree Host Corps. Besides meeting the above requirements, he must have attained the Eagle Scout rank, be at least 15 years of age, and speak another language as well as English. All Boy Scout Troop and Explorer unit leaders of the council have received a detailed bulletin regarding the World Jamboree together with notice that deadline for application to participate is August 15th of this year. Warren emphasized that the August 15th deadline is important to complete planning of the organization. Application forms may be secured from the Calumet Boy Scout council's service center at 6745 Calumet avenue, Hammond or by telephone.

The 1967 World Jamboree will bring about 17,000 Scouts from nearly 100 countries to the Idaho site. The Scouts will speak about 26 different languages but experiences at previous World Jamboree has shown that language difficulties fall quickly as boys get together with their brother Scouts. Chief Scout Executive Joseph A. Brunton, Jr. stressed the importance of the 12th World Jamboree as a demonstration of world brotherhood. Such bringing together of youth from many lands has contributed greatly to world-wide standards of friendships and of helpfulness to each other. Units wishing to serve as hosts to Scouts from other countries will be asked later to indicate such desire.

Open Letter from the Hirschs

Dear friends,

The day after the funeral director is called is the usual time to select the casket. In our display room you will find that prices are plainly marked to include the casket, the complete funeral service, and all ordinary essentials.

A selection should be made within the financial means of the bereaved family.

Respectfully,
